

Stark County Education Service Center
SLP In-Service Series
Fall 2015

10.29.15      Hot Topics in Ethics for the School-Based Speech-Language Pathologist and Audiologist

This presentation will meet the licensure board's continuing education requirement for licensees to complete two hours related to ethics. During this interactive presentation, licensees will have the opportunity to decide whether various hypothetical scenarios pose any ethical dilemmas, and if so, how to appropriately respond in order to resolve them. In addition, licensees will receive resources to prevent ethical conflicts.

2.0 contact hours

Due to the expected demand for this course it will be repeated. Please sign up for only one of the sessions listed below.

9:00am – 11:00am, Diebold Room, Stark County ESC (Registration 8:30-9:00am)

1:00pm – 3:00pm, Diebold Room, Stark County ESC (Registration 12:30 -1:00pm)

YOU MUST BRING YOUR OBSLPA LICENSE NUMBER WITH YOU TO THE PRESENTATION!

11.5.15      Fast, Fun and Effective Intervention for Severely Phonologically Impaired Clients

Join Deb Nofziger-Miller, M.A., CCC/SLP as she shares her clinical experience using maximal contrast pairs to improve speech intelligibility for young clients with severe phonological disorders. This is sure to be a "learn it today and use it tomorrow" session. Have a challenging student in mind when you come to this session!

2 contact hours

1:00pm – 3:00pm, Diebold Room, Stark County ESC

11.20.15      When the "perfect" intervention strategy doesn't work...

This article discussion session will explore how general learning principles do not always translate into effective language intervention. Please read: Gilliam, S., & Gillam, R. (2014). Improving clinical services: Be aware of fuzzy connections between principles and strategies. LSHHS, 45, 137-144. (Downloadable from www.asha.org). During our in-service we will review the information from the article as well as additional information related to the topic.

2 contact hours

9:00am – 11:00am, Diebold Room, Stark County ESC

Sign up for these sessions by contacting: Carla Curran, 330.492-8136 or email Carla at Carla.curran@email.sparcc.org

There is no charge to attend these sessions however, we do ask that you register for the course and, if you have to cancel, please give us as much notice as possible.

Professional Development Certificates will be provided at the conclusion of each session.